

We're ready for football season...

ARE YOU? School has started. Fall is just around the corner and another exciting football season is underway. As with any successful team, you will often hear the coach talk about determination, loyalty, hard work and "doing your job".

At The O'Connor Insurance Group, LLC, when you become a client, you also become a valued member of our team! Then, our loyal staff rolls up their sleeves to "do their job" for you with relentless determination and superb execution. As a member of our winning team, you are as valued to our agency as a Super Bowl MVP Quarterback. Don't wait to find out that you have an uncovered claim and are effectively "sacked", call us today at (504) 262-8900 so our professional team can develop a solid insurance game plan just for you!!
